Privacy Policy

The Devonport Golf Club collects the contact details of people who utilise the facilities, or become members of the Club. We collect this information in order to provide services to our members and to communicate directly with them or for promotion of such events as tournaments and regular golf competitions. Sometimes we may share this information with Tournament Sponsors, but only as an overview of the geographic/demographic makeup of our players, never the personal information of individual members.

If you choose to give us personal information, for example to correspond with you, process an order or provide you with a subscription then this will be held by the Devonport Golf Club and/or organisations who will process it on the Club's behalf. For the purposes of administering your functions, it may be necessary for your information to be passed by the Club to an organisation as mentioned above. Also the Club may use your personal information to supply you with information about the Club and its related organisations, as well as their respective activities and ranges of goods, services and opportunities, and/or for general statistical purposes.

The Devonport Golf Club does not sell, rent, or share your personal information to a third party unless you specifically consent to provide such information to a third party partner or content service.

If you tell us that you do not wish to have this information used as a basis for further contact with you, or if you tell us that you do not wish to have this information distributed to others, or even if you tell us that you do not wish to receive additional information from us or our partners, then we will also respect your wishes.

The Devonport Golf Club and our technology partners maintain email lists of players who have registered to receive emails from the Devonport Golf Club to inform them of new information about this Club, our Pennants and facilities. We do not sell, reuse, rent, lease, loan, trade or otherwise divulge the addresses on our lists to anyone unless you specifically consent to provide such information to a third party partner.

When you make a purchase or payment with the Devonport Golf Club, your personal information such as your name, address or credit card number is kept safe and secure. It is only used by us and our merchandise fulfilment and technology partners to complete your payment although your email address may be stored in order to advise you of new information concerning this Club and your membership.

Unless you inform us otherwise, we will continue to use the contact information we have about you this way. If you would like to know more about privacy at the Devonport Golf Club, including your right to seek access to the personal information we hold about you, contact us by email at devonportgolf@bigpond.com
